STANDARD #1: EQUITY

Description: We commit to diversity, inclusion, and access while working to deconstruct systems of power and privilege in our organizations and community. Our members develop skills, knowledge, and understanding to demonstrate cultural humility, value and respect diverse and intersectional experiences, become aware of implicit bias and privilege, and take action to create change.

addressing systemic racism; revising policies/traditions that made members feel excluded; advocating for social equity and racial justice; removing heteronormative practices; participating in a discussion on allyship; co-sponsoring a Medallion workshop hosted by the Burgett Intercultural Center such as Safe Zone training; holding additional programs such as those recommended in the minimum standards.

Minimum Requirements:

- 1. The organization holds one conversation or program related to diversity, equity, and inclusion.
