Organization Roster Cleanup

This summer, Wilson Commons Student Activities will again be removing graduated students from organization rosters.

Student Organizations will have all of their non-Undergraduate student memberships automatically ended over the summer. While these members will no longer show up in active rosters, their memberships will still be part of their CCC profiles and your organization's history.

UR Social Impact & Entrepreneurship Program

The UR Social Impact & Entrepreneurship Program is an opportunity for UR students to spend the fall semester in Washington, DC, learning about social entrepreneurship through courses and cutting-edge guaranteed

Call for Student Organizations Participation at Fall Orientation

Before the start of classes in August, the University runs a nine day Orientation program for incoming first-year and transfer students. One of the important components of this program are the social activities that allow the incoming students can get to know each other as well as current students and student groups on campus. This is where you come in.

We are excited to invite student organizations to participate in Orientation, through proposing a program. You can propose to put on a program that you've done in past years, or come up with a completely new idea. Performance groups, this is also your chance to indicate interest in performing at Park Lot, Convocation, UnCommon Night, and/or Celebrate Diversity. If you are interested, please fill out this application, by May 1st. Be sure to meet with your advisor because you will need their approval in order for the application to be considered complete.

If you have any questions, please contact the Orientation Office at orientation@rochester.edu, stop by the Orientation Office in See Hall 311 or call (585) 275-4414.

Save the Date: Yellowjacket Weekend 2019

Celebrate the beginning of the academic year with fun and exciting events including the Fall Activities Fair, live music, free movie screenings, giveaways, athletic competitions, carnival games, and rides. The weekend will also feature a special performance by a headlining artist as well as events hosted by various student organizations and campus departments.

Yellowjacket Weekend will take place August 30 – September 2, 2019!

Yellowjacket Weekend is one of the Community Weekends. If your organization would like a stand-alone event represented on the Yellowjacket Weekend calendar, please contact Brian Magee. If your organization would specifically like to host an activity during the Yellowjacket Weekend Carnival on August 31, 2019, email the Student Programming Board
